

August 8, 1942

Dr. J. B. Martin
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Friend:

I had arranged for the Eagles to play Chicago August 17th, and Trenton, August 18th. I am sure by this time you have heard from Gottlieb about the change. He called me yesterday and asked me to release Chicago so they could play the Grays on their back.

As a result, the Stars will play the Eagles in Hartford, the 17th, and Trenton, the 18th. This, of course, with the understanding Chicago is playing the Grays each day on their way home.

I will see you this week-end in Chicago.

Very truly yours,